Home-Study Course for Women

TEST# 8

Chapter 1 (O&P)

1. They provide a role model to their pupils. The girls naturally assume that their way of dress is undoubtedly perfect.
2. The school in which they teach, employs a Jewish lady teacher who lacks tznius in dress. The students conclude that this obviously is not very important to the principal and teaching of tznius falls on deaf ears. The author suggests that if they do not feel capable of speaking directly to the principal or the offending teacher herself they should write a modest, but firm letter about this issue.
3. To teach these values to others.
4. If they do not, they will be held responsible for the apathy and indifference of the rest of the town on issues of tznius and general refinement because people look up to them as role models.
5. Yes. (Extra Credit) If, on her own, a woman dresses in appropriately and glamorously in public, she causes her husband to expect her to look glamorous whether at home or in public. And, if she suddenly stops, her husband may miss it, and insist his wife looks very beautiful at all times.
6. See page 99.
